Given

A word cloud of the word "FIGHT" in various sizes and orientations, arranged in a circular pattern on a light orange background. The word is repeated many times, with some instances being very large and prominent, while others are small and partially obscured. The overall shape of the word cloud is roughly circular, with the word "FIGHT" appearing in many different sizes and orientations, creating a sense of movement and energy. The background is a solid light orange color, which provides a warm and motivational feel to the graphic.
